

KEEPING IT REAL

Identifying False Teachers

Galatians 1:1-12

I. Discerning a Counterfeit from the Authentic

- Make _____ you _____ what you say you _____: 2 Peter 1:3-9
- Become more grounded in _____, not just religiously-oriented _____ and _____.
- Don't fail to ask the _____ for help.

II. Discerning Heat from Light: 2 Peter 2:1-3

- Just because a teacher is “_____” doesn't mean they should be _____.
- Beware of confusing being _____ with being _____.
- The ultimate flip flop: _____ become _____ and _____ is _____.
2 Peter 2:17-20

III. Discerning Doctrines of God from Doctrines of Devils: Matthew 24:23-27

The Four Questions You Must Answer About A Teacher:

- Is the _____ Jesus at the _____ of the teaching?
- Is the _____ the key to understanding God's nature?
- Ask yourself, “What kind of _____ does this teaching _____?”
- What is the ultimate _____ you can look forward to by living out the _____ you are currently following? Matt. 7:21-29

Bottom Line: We normally adopt the action, attitudes and thought processes of those we have put our trust in to teach us. So stop and consider this: Are you on track to hear “well done, My good and faithful servant” or depart from me, I never knew you.”

KEEPING IT REAL

Identifying False Teachers

Galatians 1:1-12

II. Discerning a Counterfeit from the Authentic

- Make sure you are what you say you are: 2 Peter 1:3-9
- Become more grounded in God's Word, not just religiously-oriented reading and broadcast.
- Don't fail to ask the Holy Spirit for help.

III. Discerning Heat from Light: 2 Peter 2:1-3

- Just because a teacher is "likeable" doesn't mean they should be followed.
- Beware of confusing being emotional with being spiritual.
- The ultimate flip flop: lies become loved and truth is hated:
2 Peter 2:17-20

IV. Discerning Doctrines of God from Doctrines of Devils: Matt. 24:23-27

The Four Questions You Must Answer About A Teacher:

- Is the real Jesus at the center of the teaching?
- Is the simple Gospel the key to understanding God's nature?
- Ask yourself, "What kind of followers does this teaching produce?"
- What is the ultimate end you can look forward to by living out the teaching you are currently following? Matt. 7:21-29

Bottom Line: We normally adopt the action, attitudes and thought processes of those we have put our trust in to teach us. So stop and consider this: Are you on track to hear "well done, My good and faithful servant" or depart from me, I never knew you."
